

Questions about targeted therapy

1. Why do you recommend a targeted cancer therapy for me?

2. What mutation do I have?

3. What kind of targeted cancer therapy will I get?

4. Will targeted cancer therapy be my only treatment, or will it be combined with another treatment?

5. How often will I take this therapy and for how long?

6. How and when will I know if the treatment is working?

7. How often do I need to be seen between treatments for a physical exam and/or lab work?

8. Can I expect to see changes in my lab results while on this treatment?

9. Are there any tests or procedures I will need during the treatment?

10. What side effects can I expect?

Questions about targeted therapy

11. What can I do to manage these side effects?

12. How will this treatment affect my daily life? Will I be able to work, exercise, and perform my usual activities?

13. What tests will I need after treatment is completed?

14. Are there any long-term health issues I should expect from treatment with targeted therapy?

15. How much will my treatment cost?
