

You are not alone!

LUNGevity connects people affected by lung cancer with other patients, survivors, caregivers, and medical experts to get the information and support they need.

"I was 30 years old and terrified when my mother was diagnosed with lung cancer. None of us knew what we were supposed to do next. I found knowledge, support, understanding, and love at LUNGevity's Lung Cancer Support Community, and Mom found it too!"

MELISSA H.

"I felt instantly connected to strangers who became family. I can't begin to explain what HOPE Summit has given to me."

TRACY A.

"I CAN do something! LUNGevity's Link-UP is showing me all the ways I can help in the fight against lung cancer!"

JESSICA K.

LUNGevity is the largest national lung cancer-focused nonprofit. We are changing outcomes for people with lung cancer through research, education, and support.

LUNGevity funds research that has the potential to revolutionize outcomes for those diagnosed with lung cancer. With our strategic approach in two priority areas—finding lung cancer early and treating it more effectively—our research speeds breakthroughs to patients so that they can live longer and better lives.

Find it. Treat it. Live.

Support and Survivorship Programs
for People Affected by Lung Cancer

Get Connected

Support and Survivorship Programs

LUNGEVITY LIFELINE: A personalized phone and email support program that matches lung cancer patients with Support Mentors—lung cancer survivors and co-survivors who have walked the lung cancer path and volunteer to mentor and offer encouragement, advice, friendship, and hope to others. This free program is a support resource for individuals, hospitals, and cancer support organizations.

LUNGEVITY HOPE SUMMITS: Annual national and regional HOPE Summits are conferences specifically for lung cancer survivors at all stages of the disease. Survivors, medical professionals, and advocates attend educational sessions on the latest research and living well with lung cancer; hear inspirational speakers; and connect with people from across the country who have had a lung cancer diagnosis.

LUNG CANCER SUPPORT COMMUNITY (LCSC): The largest online network dedicated to supporting those touched by lung cancer, LCSC is a moderated message board where people can share resources and support.

INFORMATIVE LUNGEVITY BLOGS: Visit the LUNgevity blogs frequently for updates on research, nutrition, and health and wellness, or to read about a fellow survivor's lung cancer journey. Submit your own personal story to www.LUNgevity.org/stories or send an email to blog@LUNgevity.org.

CAREGIVER RESOURCE CENTER: An online resource that offers support and practical advice to caregivers. You'll learn what to expect after a lung cancer diagnosis, what questions to ask, how to be a healthcare advocate for the patient, and ways to take care of yourself as well.

LUNG CANCER CLINICAL TRIALS MATCHING SERVICE: A free, confidential, personalized service to help you understand which lung cancer clinical trials may be options for you.

Other Ways to Get Connected

LUNgevity welcomes volunteers who are interested in supporting people affected by lung cancer or in helping to raise funds for research into earlier diagnosis and more effective treatments as well as for education and support programs.

BECOME A LIFELINE SUPPORT PARTNER: Volunteer to be a mentor and friend for someone today. Sign up on our website at www.LUNgevity.org/LifeLine, email support@LUNgevity.org, or call 312.407.6116 to volunteer to become a Support Partner.

START A TRIBUTE FUND: Celebrate special people and events with donations to support programs and research into improved survival of lung cancer.

PARTICIPATE IN OR CREATE YOUR OWN EVENT: LUNgevity has the largest national network of grassroots events aimed at creating awareness about lung cancer and raising money for lifesaving research and programs. Find out whether there's a Breathe Deep event in your area and how you can get involved.

LUNGEVITY LINKUP: Interested in raising awareness about lung cancer and LUNgevity? Sign up for LinkUP Action Alerts to keep updated on opportunities and ways to get involved.
